Dear Prayer Partners,

Hebrews 1:3-4

“The Son is the radiance of God’s glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven. So he became as much superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is superior to theirs.”

Revelation 1:10

“On the Lord’s Day I was in the Spirit, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet.”

Revelation 1:20

“The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and of the seven golden lamp stands is this: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lamp stands are the seven churches.”

Hebrews 1:14

“Are not all the angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?”

Matthew 18:10

“See that you do not look down on one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father in heaven.”

Psalms 34:7

“The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him, and he delivers them.”

Psalms 103:20

“Praise the Lord, you his angels, you mighty ones who do his bidding, who obey his word.”

Revelation 14:6

“Then I saw another angel flying in midair, and he had the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth – to every nation, tribe, language, and people.”

Revelation 14:7

Michael Cox

In reality the monk abandons the world only in order to listen more intently to the deepest and most neglected voices that proceed from its inner depth. – Thomas Merton

Jesus doesn’t impose salvation as a solution; he narrates salvation into being through leisurely conversation, intimate personal relationships, compassionate responses, passionate prayer and a sacrificial death. – Eugene Peterson

And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to Him day and night.
